A NOTE FROM PAT:

We had a great meeting in October, with super attendance. So very good to "see" all of you! And we must give a big shout out to Sue Blaney for putting together that Show and Tell power point - amazing job and so good to be inspired by everyone's work.

The raffle quilt was drawn (live video on our Facebook page) and it was won by Gayle O'Bryan! She is thrilled and has already picked up her new quilt. The big news there is that we raised over $1700 for food pantries!

And thanks to Tica and Laura's hard work, the Marge Tucker workshop is full for November 7.

This is wonderful news as full workshops more than pay for themselves and this means we are going to have a lot of walking foot experts in our midst.

Just a teaser - something fun is being planned for our December 7th meeting. Our December event committee led by Josee is cooking up a great evening. Can't wait to see what Jill Cochrane, Jane Harris, Sue Blaney, Gayle O'Bryan and Josee Vachon come up with!

Stay safe and be creative! Pat

Silent Auction Launches November 1!

We have 18 lots of wonderful items for you to check out. There are sure to be some good deals in there. I certainly know which ones I want to bid on!! (Pre-bidding opens on October 30)

<https://www.biddingowl.com/WaysideQuiltersGuild>

This link should take you to the Bidding Owl website where you register as a bidder and then start bidding. The auction will end at noon on Saturday November 14th. The highest bidder will have three days to pay via paypal. (If not, it will go to the next higher bidder).

If you'd like, share the site with other quilters - it is open to everyone. If you encounter problems, be sure to check in with Pat by email or phone. Patlukens70@gmail.com or 508-479-5387. We've never tried this before and there are sure to be bumps along the way!

If you are comfortable sharing the auction on social media, Bidding Owl requests that you use this link:

<https://www.biddingowl.com/Auction/home.cfm?auctionID=XXXX>

From this link, they must search for our auction, which will not be live until Nov. 1

ALSO...

Auction results (silent and otherwise ) will be published in the December newsletter.

Something to look forward to and info we will all want to congratulate our fellow quilters on. A must read! AND, be sure to attend the December meeting as you could be a winner there.

ITEMS AVAILABLE... Nancy King

I've been in touch with a local Maynard lady that has two Singer Featherweight machines for sale. She wants to get a fair price for them rather than consign them. She has the repair history and an interesting background story as well. Please get in touch with Nancy K for contact information if you or a friend would be interested.

Also....quilt show muslin bag kits are available to include measured muslin fabric, vinyl pocket, rope tie and instructions for just $8.00 payable to our guild.

Curbside or porch drop offs of our library collection always available upon requests.

Whether your looking for anything particular by subject, style or author. Find the list link under the "stay informed" on our web page. Calling is the best contact for me.

Happy Thanksgiving!

November 2nd Guild PRESENTATION:

On November 2nd, quilt artist, Valerie Goodwin, from Florida, will be doing a presentation for us with the title:

"A Dialogue between Quilting and Architecture".

Valerie is a quilt artist, and also an architect. She has degrees from Washington University and Yale, and teaches Architectural design at Florida A & M University. Many of her quilts are inspired by architectural design, landscapes, maps and cities, and the relationship of people to place.

This lecture and trunk show promise to be inspirational - be sure not to miss this exciting presentation!
